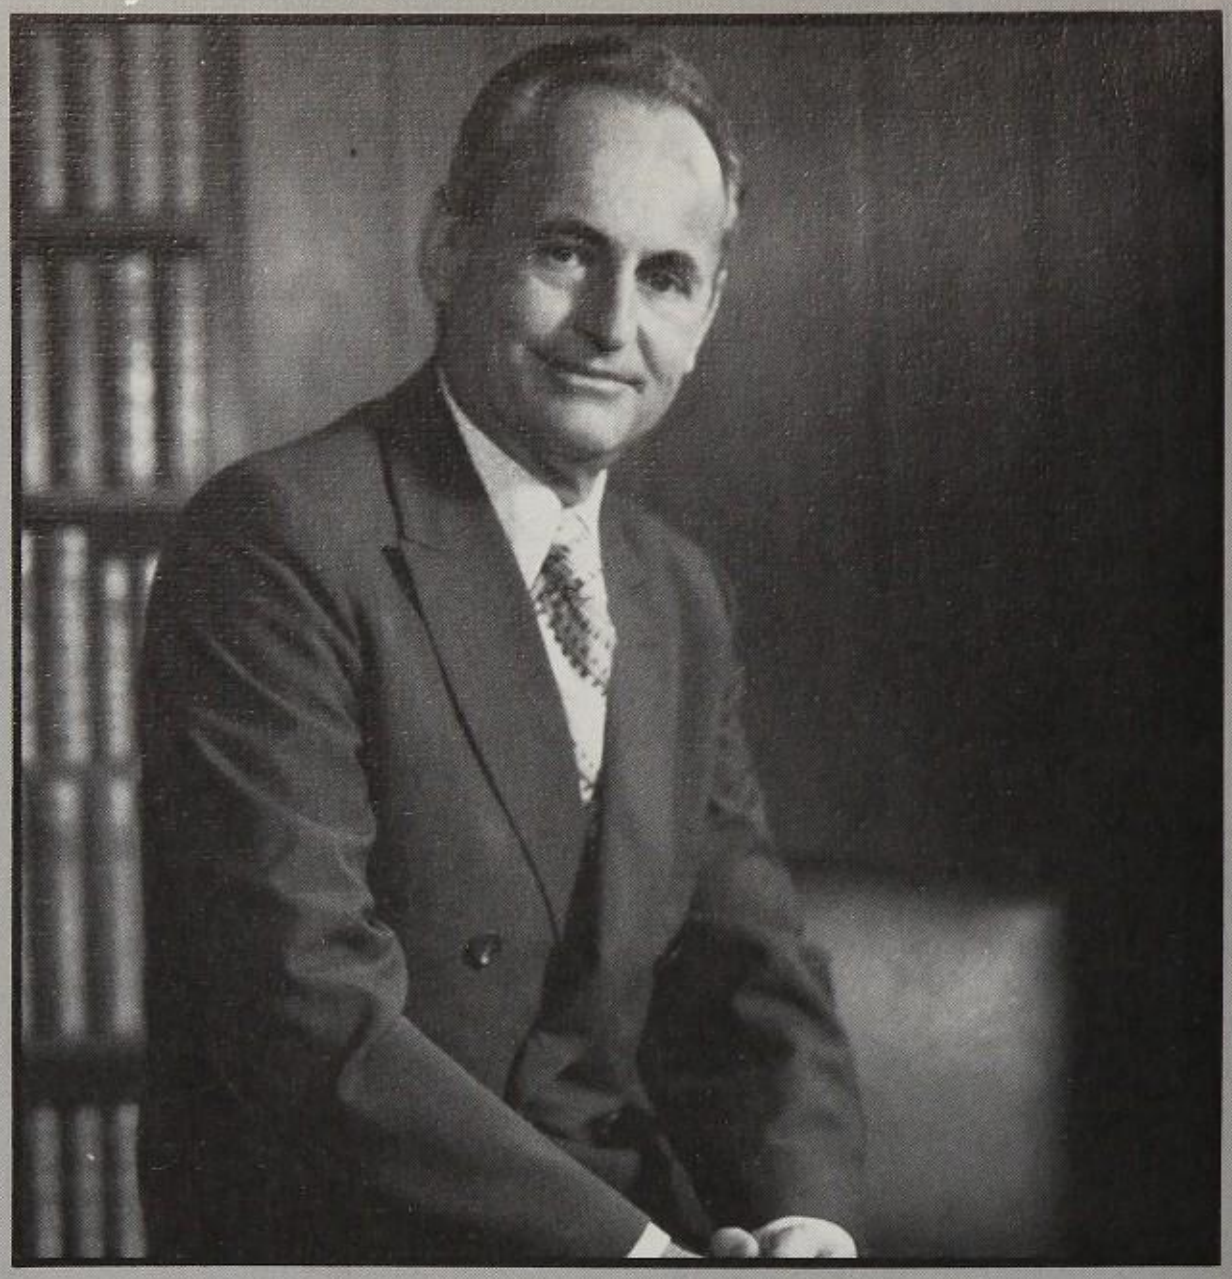
'. . . and here's to you Doctor Robinson . . .'

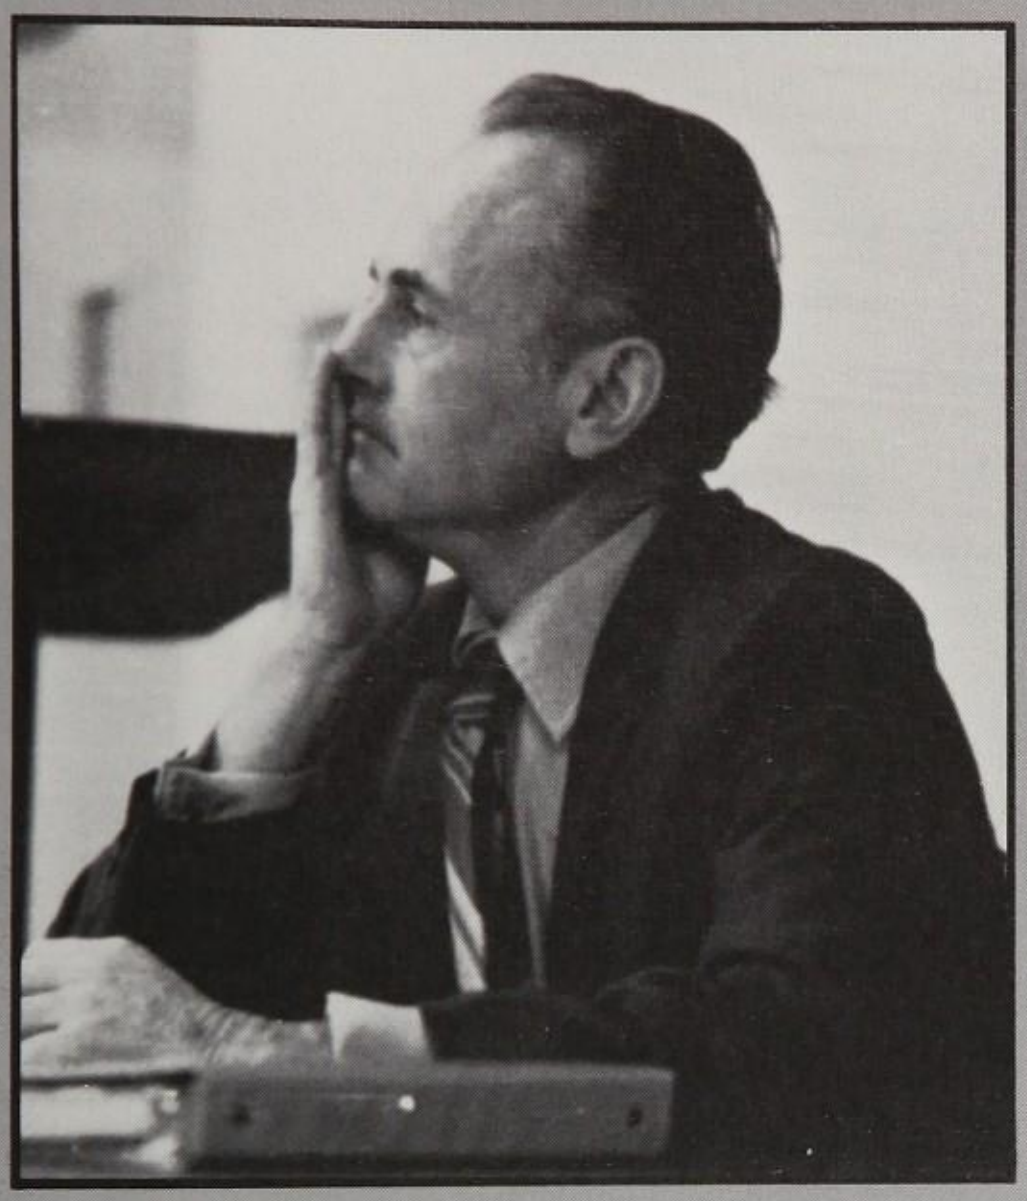


There is an old superstition that says 13 is an unlucky number. Well, Beverly Hills High School has beaten that superstition by enjoying 13 prosperous years of development under the guidance of our principal, Dr. F. Willard Robinson.

Dr. Robinson was born in Long Beach in 1918. He attended USC and the University of Alaska during his college years, where he was very actively involved in debate, forensics, student government, and athletics. He spent six years as a navy pilot, and his remarkable story of the plane crash he survived was featured in Ripley's BELIEVE IT OR NOT.

Dr. Robinson came to Beverly in September of '59, and since that time has brought prosperity and recognition to the school. He has given us enriched opportunities, many new facilities, and introduced the flexible scheduling program in the form of Mod-70. He has been concerned for the individual student and educational opportunities.

Sometime in the future, Dr. Robinson would like to open a unique independent school that encompasses academic progress and educational style.



Mr. Kenneth L. Peters

Board of Education and

There is a parable credited to many that compliments the theme of this year's WATCHTOWER. It goes—a tired father is sitting in the living room and he is being pestered by his school-aged son. Finally, in order to borrow some peace and quiet, he rips a map of the world out of a magazine, tears it into tiny pieces, and asks his son to put the jigsaw puzzle together. In a disturbingly brief time, the son tags at the father's elbow, and points to the completed puzzle. The father, astounded, asks how he did it so quickly. The son replied, "That was easy, Dad, on the other side was a picture of a man. I put the man together, and the world came out all right."

The world is people. The world of people must move from an era of disbelief and conflict, to an era of confidence, pride, and commitment. The pieces of the puzzle must be put together with an optimistic faith in the future.

The class of 1972 can assist by their personal dedication to assure that equality, peace, and the value structures of the world of nations results in "people" oriented goals.

Leadership class is the executive section of Student Council. It consists of ASB offices, Girls' and Boys' League representatives, class officers, and spirit leaders. The fall council established many different kinds of mini-groups within their leadership class. The accomplishments of these mini-groups ranged from police-student rap sessions, and community rap sessions, to a food testing committee. A Mod-70 evaluation committee also met during leadership class. The members, of student Council are: The three ASB officers, Nickki Baker, Ken Bayer, James Berliner, Dina Catz, Sara Catz, Nancy Cole, Helene Feder, Morley Feinstein, Lori Greene, Vivian Hoffman, Peggy Horowitz, Scott Karlin, Brad Krevoy, Edwin Lasman, Sindee Levin, Caron Levinson, Debbie Linney, Marlene Magenheim, David Maron, Steve Needleman, Ron Nessim, Diane Powell, Sue Radcliff, John Schoenfeld, Susan Sloan, Ron Smoire, Barret Stambler, Alexis Strauss, Tara Ukra, Shelia Weisburg, and Cathy Wise.

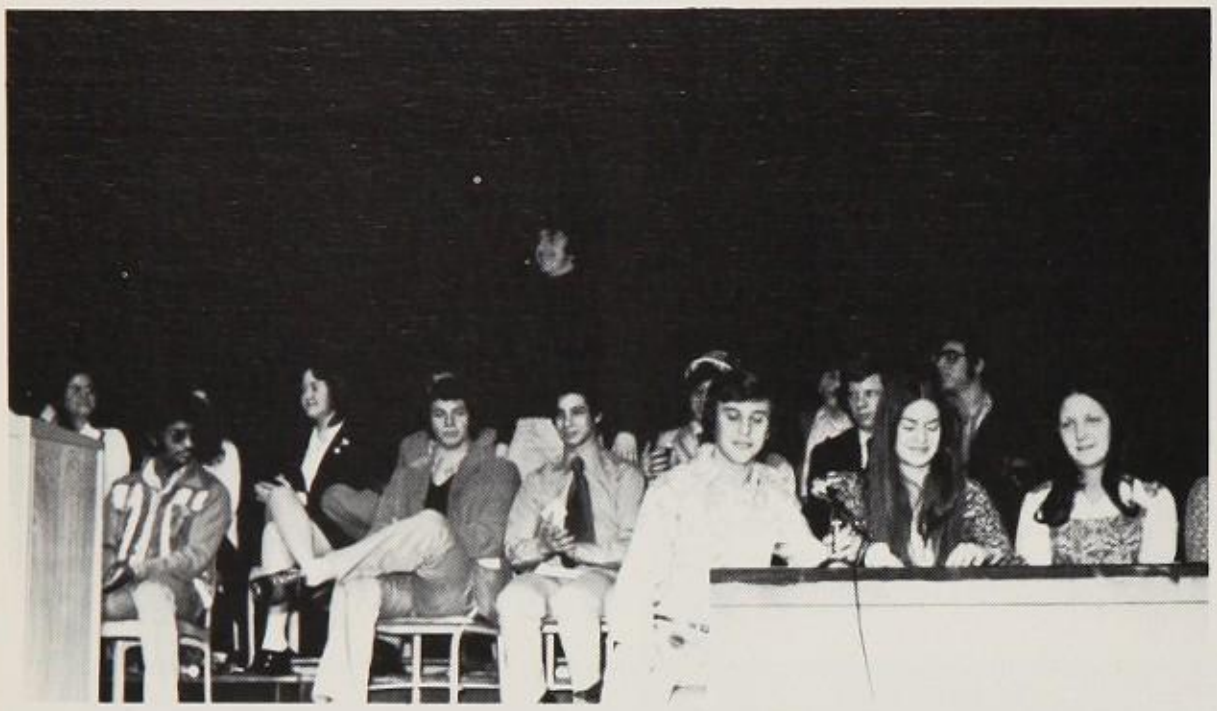
The agony and the ecstacy



The election assembly

There was a new twist to student elections this year. This was the year for record breakers at Beverly. There were more uncontested offices this year than ever before, and the turnout, 1,230 voters, was the largest in Beverly's history. This was attributed to a greater diversity of students running for offices than ever before.

Spring Council: unity and action

Student pursual of community backing became the issue during the spring semester in leadership. The goal was to ultimately gain support for their ideas from the community and then bring these proposals, with the backing of the parents, to the administration. Another concern of Student Council was to open the front lawn during class hours.

Ahalani: a drive to aid

Beverly Hills High School initiated a new drive last year. It was to buy a Ford bus for the Ahalani Indians of Bishop, California. The desired amount was $4,000 for the bus. Aiding Beverly to achieve this goal was North Hollywood High School and the four elementary schools. A candy sale was held, and the sales totaled $3,300, $700 short of the goal. The difference was made up by the Ford dealer, Bob Tuttle. The need for the bus was essential to the Bishop Indians. They were in desperate need of medical attention and educational facilities which could only be obtained through some means of transportation to the center of town.

Juniors superstars of Hello Day

Rather than the traditional Hello Day, this year's opening activity was unique. The seniors varied from the norm-an style by presenting a theme of "everybody is a star;" the sophmores with traditions at Beverly and the juniors captivated the audience with a take-off of Jesus Christ Superstar. Surprising everyone, Barney Malin, Andi Keilus and Michelle Brucker, who won for the "friendliest" declined the award because they felt the process of selection was unjust.

The annual Pigskin Prom marked the opening of Beverly's 1971 football season. Once again, John Schoenfeld acted as master of ceremonies. He announced the selection of this year's Varsity Sweetheart, Cathy Wise. Juniors Smitty Wordes and Missy March were honored as princesses. Headlining the Pigskin was the rock group "Free Fare," which enhanced the dance.

Albion: a two-way street

One tradition that remained the same at Beverly this year was the act of giving at Christmas time. For nearly two generations now, Beverly students have raised money in order to buy presents for the 600 kids of Albion Street School. On December 17, the efforts crystalized as 50 Normans, equipped with toys, books, and candy, celebrated the holiday season with the Albion Streeters.

Jess Marlow heads variety of speakers

Beverly had a healthy supply of speakers this fall; some of them famous, some not. KNBC news commentator Jess Marlow, the most well-known that spoke to Beverly students, answered questions concerning the TV news medium. Larry Pierce, who directed the movie version of a "A Separate Peace," talked about his latest film, while artists Charles White and June Wayne gave the students an insight into their lives as artists. The political club sponsored many lunchtime speakers. Some of them, like Dave Gooler, a member of the Student Mobilization Committee to end the war in Vietnam, and Irv Sarnoff, a member of the Peace Action Council, talked about the urgent need to end the war in Indochina. Others, like Andrew Pulley, the Socialist Workers Party vice-presidential candidate, and Ray Elliot, a member of the SDS, spoke about issues of the home front.

Many varied activities marked the calendar this fall as Beverly High entered its forty-fifth year. There were three assemblies: the sea otter assembly; the Albion Street assembly; and the Christmas assembly. For the first time mini-courses were brought to Beverly, and one of them studied the hit new TV show "All in the Family." Several community activities, which have been staged before at Beverly, were the paper drive, the Boys' League car show, and the police rap sessions. The sophomores relaxed once again during a November weekend campout in Decker Canyon. In addition to Thursday Theatres and other lunchtime activities, the orchestra performed for the student body.

Russia Revisited

For the third time in two years, Beverly students opened the Iron Curtain and stepped inside for a peek at Communist Russia. The 43 member tour group, headed by Henry Dersch and Mickey Friedman, arrived in Moscow after a night stopover in Copenhagen. Highlighting their six day stay in the ski and flee capital of the world, were tours of the Kremlin, Lenin's tomb, and a Russian school. Of course, who could forget the excitement and intrigue in meeting Russian youth and trading dollars for roubles on the black market? Amidst shouts of Brad Kaye's imitation of Jack Benny's "Oh, Don" the group left for the Ukrainian city of Kiev. There the Normans found a relatively warm atmosphere both from the climate (40 degrees) and the people. Although their stay in Leningrad was shortened by unnecessary holdovers by Intourist, the Americanskys enjoyed the cultural settings of the city.

January's concerts proved that different people relate to different types of music. One type of person might take a likin' to "Bluegrass," which is a style of music characterized by three-finger banjo picking. Coal Country and the Courtney Bros. thrilled the audience as the Beverly Hills Bluegrass Assn. presented its first concert. The other type of individual might enjoy heavy rock as the '72 edition of Jazz Night featured Ballin'jack, Batdorf and Rodney, and Birtha. A great amount of excitement was generated as the groups performed with movies and slides in the background and organic food outside the door. Clapping hands, dancing, and simply joining in proved this year's Jazz Night to be a success.

Summertree

The basis of a plot for one of the two-play presentations in March was Ron Cowans' Summertree, which forcused on a sequence of memories in the mind of a young man moments before he died in Vietnam. Because of a series of flashbacks, the play did not progress in chronological order. Rather, one memory leads by association to another memory. The play was directed by William Corrigan with Roger Smith, Debbie Ehrlich, Casey Kramer, Gary Elliot, Joel Surnow, and Sidney Mickell in the cast.

Our Town

First performed on Broadway in 1938, Our Town, written by Thorton Wilder, dealt with life, love and death in a New England town at the turn of the century. This play was a great departure from most because there were no sets or props. The leads included Joey Sutton, Yolanda Kempley, Richard Goldberg, Barbara Miller, Peter Vilkin, Lori Selcer, Richard Diskin. The play was directed by John Ingle.

Bluegrass

The Beverly Hills Bluegrass Association was formed this year by Dana Cole and Mark Ellenbogen, along with Mr. Paul Michalisko, to promote bluegrass music. Members practice playing the four major bluegrass instruments (the banjo, fiddle, guitar, and mandolin) at meetings. The club sponsored concerts and brought several experts to speak, including a banjo maker, fiddle player, banjo player, and comedian.

Human Relations

A membership jump from 50 to 400 people earned the Human Relations Club the title of the most active and fastest growing club on campus. The goal which guided the club this year the unification of both black and white students. Some of the activities which helped to achieve this goal were a picnic, Sweetheart Dance, Easter campout, Fashion show, and a complete production for PTSA which included music, dance and a play, depicting racial strife.

Madrigals

The superior reputation which the Madrigals have built through the years was reflective of this year's troupe. The highly selective group of vocal performers appeared in approximately 60 engagements, highlighted by a tour to Acapulco. The group chose both popular and classical selections, as well as show music. In May they performed in the Broadway hit "Oklahoma."

Two tough years of rebuilding paid off in the form of a Sky League championship for Coach Richard Keelor's 1971 varsity football squad. Paced by a rampant rushing attack and a stifling defense, the Normans compiled an excellent 7-1-1 record, including a near perfect 4-0-1 league mark. By trouncing Culver City, 39-13, and St. Monica, 42-0, in their first two games, the Normans climbed to the No. 8 position in the CIF 3A rankings. This, however, did not last, as the team suffered its only defeat of the season in its next contest to Lennox, 26-14. The Normans then bounced back to defeat La Mirada, 21-7. In outscoring their opponents by a staggering 17 points per game, Beverly Hills was able to accumulate 2,901 total yards to only 1,747 for the opposition. Most of the damage was done on the ground by the trio of Keith Farrell, Gordon Kritzer, and Maurice Hill, a conglomeration which produced 18 touchdowns by rushing, alone. Hill, who played both flanker and quarterback on offense, as well as a back on defense, was voted Sky League co-Player of the Year. Halfback Farrell whose amazing total of 1,048 yards gained rushing set a new school record, was named West Side Player of the Year and voted to the all-league offensive team. He, too, started on defense. Fullback Kritzer amassed 506 yards of his own, and was named to the all-league defensive squad for his work at linebacker. Other all-league selections for the Normans included center Scott Hoag, defensive end Rudi McClellan, defensive guard Peter Stilt, and honorable mention linebacker Kevin Sapin. Though not cited for league honors, linemen Bruce Bernstein, John Manchester, and Roger Smith also had fine seasons. Perhaps the most honored of the Normans was Frank Brown. Brown was placed on both all-league teams; on offense as a receiver and on defense as a back. During the year, he caught 31 passes, most of them thrown by No. 1 quarterback David Engel. Engel completed 57 passes good for 889 yards and 8 TD's. Engel's second favorite target was Maurice Hill, who averaged 17.5 yards per reception. In league action, the Normans opened up by defeating Leuzinger, 20-13, and Redondo, 26-7. Next came their most frustrating game of the season, the 0-0 tie with Morningside in a game which saw them fumble away possible victory. Now the task was clearly at hand; to win the league title, the Normans had to beat league powers Aviation and Palos Verdes, back to back. Coach Keelor and his staff, disturbed by the Morningside tie, decided that their offense needed a new wrinkle. In a strategic gem, Maurice Hill was moved to quarterback. Caught flat-footed, the Aviation defense was unable to cope with Beverly's new high-powered offense and fell, 46-21. Against Palos Verdes, Hill and Engel shared quarterback duties, and led by Kritzer's big day, the Normans clinched the league crown, 28-7. Unfortunately, the team was unable to sustain its season ending momentum and lost to Hart, 42-26, in the CIF playoffs.

cop Sky League crown

Sophs improve record

Composed mainly of last year's 1-9 frosh team, Beverly's 1971 sophomore squad improved tremendously and compiled a fine 5-3-1 record. This surprisingly strong showing netted the Normans third place in a tough, well-balanced Sky League, and included key victories over Redondo, 24-18, Leuzinger, 16-12, and Lennox, 36-14. The explosive offense was led by MVP halfback Kevin Sims, award-winning fullback Berry Gordy, quarterback Rich Cantillon, and top lineman Jeff Yablon. The defense was led by captain Bob Levy and lineman Bruce Tabb.

Frosh enjoy best year

Beverly's finest freshman team ever put together an excellent 6-3 record, good for second place in the 1971 Sky League. Their victims included Lennox, 44-8, Aviation, 14-12, Culver City, 24-22, Leuzinger, 16-12, Redondo, 14-12, and St. Monica, 8-0. Leading the team were co-MVP's Mike Higginbotham and Steve Craig, and defensive halfback Mike Katz, voted most improved player. While Higginbotham played tailback and defensive back, Craig and Jeff Lifson alternated at quarterback and split end. Other outstanding players included Steve DeCuir, Rich Martin, Mark Greenberg, Joe Robinson, and Greg Gordy.

Cees finish strongly

A group of versatile performers led the cee gridders to a hard earned 3-2-1 record. Highlighting the team were MVP Frank Conflenti, leading scorer David Schreiber, alternating quarterbacks Mark Ukra and Randy Harris, and flanker-safety Steve Mecklenburg. In addition to Conflenti's MVP, other award winners included defensive half Gerard Moreno, "Dale Friedman Award," and offensive tackle Josh Goldstein, "Most Improved." In compiling their fine record, the team defeated Morningside twice, 14-0 and 8-0, Aviation, 22-12, and tied Redondo, 6-6. Both losses were to Culver City, 16-14 and 14-6.

4) Brian Pilcher makes his way up a hill.
5) Tim Wilson picks his path through heavy brush.

Varsity cross country runs

Sparked by the first cross country victory over Morningside in ten years, Coach Toby Larson's varsity team went on to finish an improved season with a 6-4 record and a third place in the competitive Sky League. Outstanding running ability and team leadership were supplied by junior Mark Luevano and senior Mac Carey. Surprise of the season was the fine running of sophomore Brian Pilcher. Rounding out the varsity seven were point getters junior Doron Langer, senior Jay Lifson, sophomore Frank Lipkin, and junior Michael Ross.

to 6-4 season; JV's win title

Inspired by their excellent 8-2 record, the junior varsity team's season was highlighted by the capturing of a first place in the league finals. The team was paced by sophomores Tim Wilson, Leonard Mermel and Lyndon Stambler, all of whom posess varsity potential.

Showing that age and experience are necessary commodities, the frosh-soph team ended the season with a 3-7 record. Leaders on the squad were freshmen Dave Newmark and Tony Cummings.

Varsity water poloers

Perhaps Beverly's 1971 varsity water polo season was best summed up by Coach Ron Crawford when he stated that both he and fellow Coach Dick Douglas were "extremely pleased" by the effort of the entire water polo program. The varsity squad compiled an excellent 13-6 record, which included a 4-1 league mark. In finishing second in the Sky League, the team always seemed to play as well as could possibly be expected, even in defeat. A perfect example of this was the season ending loss to Palos Verdes in the game for the league championship. Many observers felt that the Normans played their finest game of the year, yet

sweep Sky League honors

they lost 6-4. On the season, the team's explosive offense was led by tri-captains Franz Wise, Phil Crandall, and Dave Maron. Wise scored 74 goals, was voted MVP, and was unanimously named to the all-league team. Crandall, who had 64 goals, received Beverly's "Outstanding Offense" award, and was named to the all-league team for the second year in a row. Maron earned the "Most Improved" award, while goalie Charles Kert received the "Outstanding Defense" award and was also named to the all-league team. Other top competitors were Stuart Seiff, Tom Deak, Steve Wyler, Bruce Barnett, Steve Rothman, and Jeff Werber.

1) Dave Maron struggles to get the shot away despite defensive pressure.
2) Stuart Seiff, holding the ball high, sets up a Beverly score.

1) Todd Margolis hurls a fall-away shot at the goal.
2) Ron Levitt leans into a powerful shot.
3) Scott Schwimer gleefully pounces on a loose ball.
4) Goalie Steve Olbath looks for someone to catch the outlet pass.
5) John Macleod fires one for another score.

Bees win league crown

Beverly's 1971 bee water polo team enjoyed an even better year than the varsity. Sparked by MVP Mike Maimes, leading scorer Ilan Rabinowitz, and goalie Steve Olbath, the team finished with a very impressive 11-3 record. This included a 5-0 league mark and the Sky League championship. It should also be noted that all three of the team's losses were by only one goal. The squad also finished third in the tough Mira Costa tournament. Team captain Todd Margolis and Jim Altmann were cited for their fine teamwork. Other top players included Marc Gipsman and John Macleod, one of few freshmen good enough to play on bee.

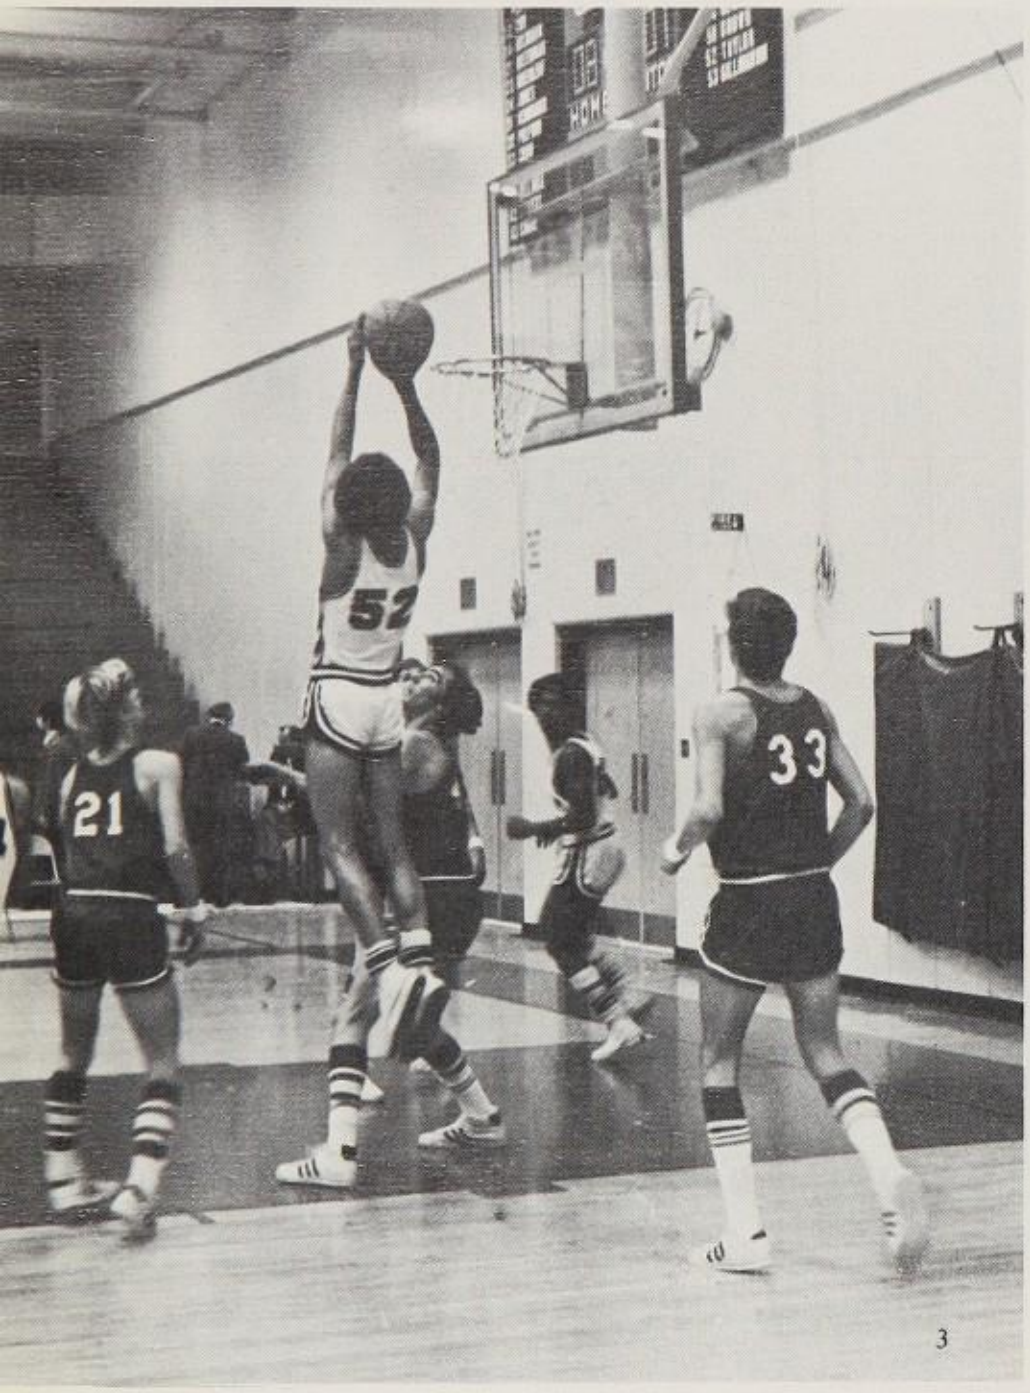
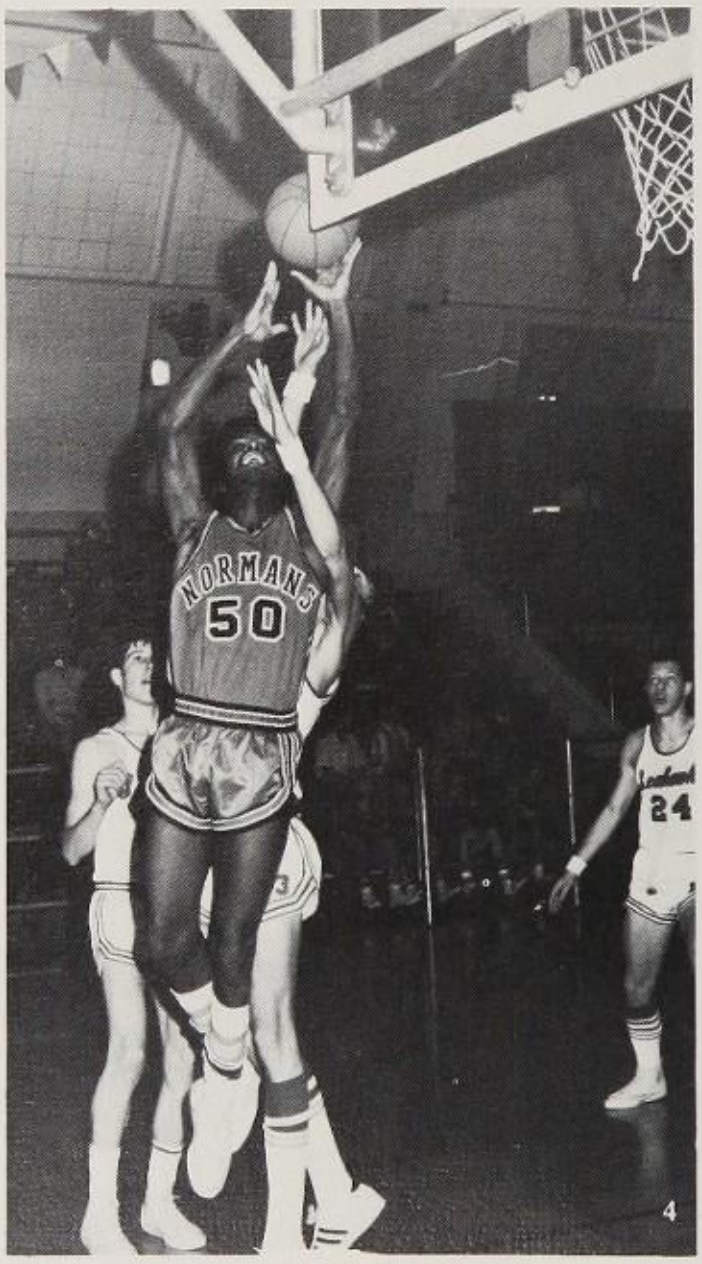
Cees develop for future

Though the cee water polo team did not reach the level of excellence attained by the varsity and bee squads, it certainly had a respectable and satisfying season of which it can be proud. Bolstered by the largest turnout for cee water polo in Beverly history, the team compiled a 5-6 record, and developed a number of future stars. A 3-2 league mark netted the Normans a tie for second place in the Sky League. Leading the offense were MVP Barry Brucker and high scorer Billy Wainer. Improving greatly over the year was goalie Julio Macat. Other stars were captain Buddy Lindman, Alan Appley, and Peter Brown.

1) Billy Wainer moves in on the goalie.
2) Buddy Lindman prepares to shoot a pass ahead to a teammate.
3) Barry Brucker retreats on defense to knock the ball away from an opposing foward.
4) Peter Brown whips a goal into the net.





1) Jerry Solomon fires up a 20-foot jumper over a leaping defender.
2) Coach Schreiber devises a pattern play in the double overtime thriller against Palos Verdes.
3) Russell Taylor contorts his body in mid-air to get away a jumper.
4) Frank Brown slithers underneath to score.
5) Gary Newman pops in a short baseline shot against Palos Verdes.

Varsity basketballers

Despite a slow start in pre-league games, Beverly's 1971-72 varsity basketball squad came on strong in Sky League action to challenge for a second place finish and a berth in the CIF playoffs. Coach Richard Schreiber's team was characterized by tough switching man-to-man and zone defenses and a consistent, if not high-scoring, offense. The team's best all-around performers were seniors Gary Goodman and all-CIF prospect Gary Newman. Newman, the team captain, averaged better than 20 points and 15 rebounds per game. Goodman, the team's most consistent outside shooter, averaged better than 16 points per game and was the challenge for playoffs

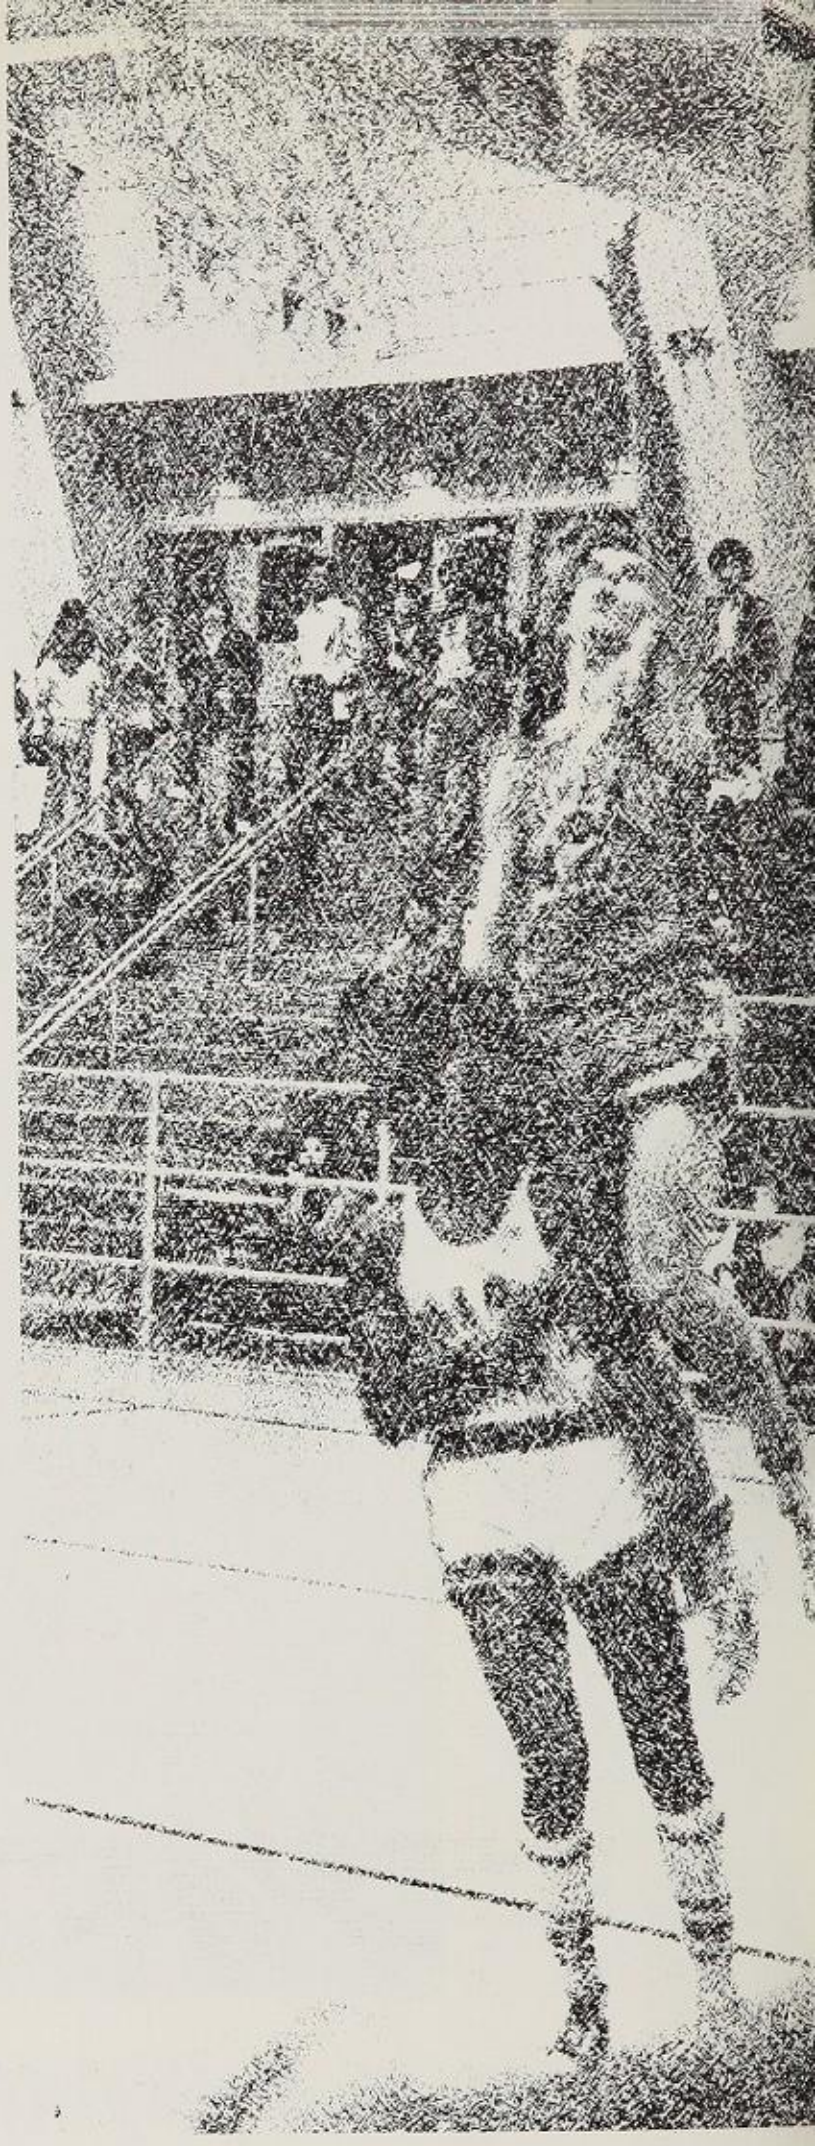
ringleader of Coach Schreiber's pressing defenses. Alternating at the center position were Russell Taylor and Brad Gillingham. Both proved to be fine rebounders and good scorers when within 15 feet of the basket. Starting opposite Newman at the other forward spot was Frank Brown, who, in Coach Schreiber's words, was one of the most unselfish and hardworking players under the backboards on the team. Rounding out the starting five was Jerry Solomon, who, along with Brad Globe, set up the team's offense, made numerous steals, and gave the Normans another outside shooting threat.

1) Gary Firestein dribbles the ball out front against St. Monica.
2) Brad Gillingham vies for the second overtime tip-off against PV.
3) Gary Goodman looks around for someone to pass-off to.
4) Brad Gillingham spins off the low post to bank one in.



1) Frank Brown goes up and over a Morningside defender.
2) Gary Newman shovels up a reverse lay-up.
3) Brad Globe pops a long jumper from the right corner as his teammates jostle for rebound position.
4) Gary Goodman lays the ball up and in despite a gentle nudge from Morningside's Benny Kamack.

Whereas Solomon and Alan Gottlieb were finer play makers, Globe and Gary Firestein proved to be better shooters. The Normans participated in three pre-league tournaments. In the strong Pacific Shores tourney, they defeated West and Hawthorne to advance to the consolation finals where they lost to Bishop Montgomery. But the team had shown signs of maturation, and Gary Newman's excellent play earned him a berth on the all-tournament winners. Both Gary Newman and Gary Goodman were names to the all-tourney team. In one of the most exciting weeks in Norman basketball history. Beverly played back-to-back double overtime thrillers against league rivals Palos Verdes and Leuzinger. Gary Goodman's free throw gave the Normans a 67-66 victory over Palos Verdes in the first game, but when Brad Gillingham's basket at the buzzer was disallowed due to a disputed offensive foul call, the Normans lost to Leuzinger, 77-76. Overall, the team's strong points were its hustling defenses and excellent movement of the ball.

1) Alan Gottlieb follows through on a baseline shot.
2) Gary Newman banks one off of the glass as teammates Brad Gillingham, Russell Taylor, and Gary Goodman move into rebound position.
3) Frank Brown appears to be pointing to the sky, but he's actually taking a shot.

JV's battle for title

Coach Ned Eckert's 1971-72 junior varsity squad continued the tradition of strong JV teams at Beverly by winning more than 14 games and fighting it out with Palos Verdes for the league title. The team's backcourt leaders were Louis Bersin, Steve Vletas, and outstanding freshman Steve Craig. Down from the varsity along with high scoring soph Dave Saltzman, Bersin set a JV record by tallying 36 points against Leuzinger. Steve Pelton was the team's top scorer, while Richard Schulman set a new JV seasonal rebounding mark. Other top scorer-rebounders were Greg Brown, Roger Wolf, Robbie Curtis, and Alfred Sapse.

Sophs win convincingly

Good court sense and controlled ball handling proved to be a winning combination as Coach Gerry Carpenter's soph basketballers challenged for the league title. The leading scorer was Bob Levy, who averaged better than 9 points per game. The strong suit of the team was its ability to operate four different defenses under the command of "field general" Rob Manchester. The backboards were controlled by John Levitt and freshman Randall Brody. Brody demonstrated his outstanding rebounding ability by gathering in 21 boards against a physical Palos Verdes frontline. The clutch play of Andy Cohn and John Levy provided the margin of victory in numerous close games.

1) Gary Schwartz's opponents watch as he gets two.
2) Andy Cohn, leading the pack, lays the ball up and in.
3) John Levitt clears the boards.
4) Randall Brody displays his toughness around the basket.

1) Steve De Cuir jumps high to give Beverly the tip.
2) Steve Craig hangs in the air to get a jumper away.
3) Mike Higginbotham out-maneuvers a Morningside defender while driving the baseline.
4) Brad Turell pulls up for an outside jumper.

Frosh win league title

According to Coach Jack Reilly, a total team effort was responsible for the frosh team's capture of the Sky League title. The starting five of Steve De Cuir, Brad Turell, Mike Higginbotham, David Gross, and Steve Craig, who came down from the JV team, was given great support from Steve Mann, Ed Amos, Kevin Brunk, Glenn Freeman, Dave Neubert, Mike Suter, Gary Globe, Rick Martin, and Alan Nierob. However, certain individuals did stand out. Steve De Cuir and Mike Higginbotam were towers of strength on the boards, while David Gross's hustle was nonstop. Steve Craig and Brad Turell proved to be the team's best shooters, playmakers, and frontline defenders.

Matmen on top

Overcoming a slow start, a young varsity team developed into what was a league wrestling power by the end of the season. Comprised almost entirely of juniors, Coach Jack Gifford's 1972 wrestling Normans came on to finish the season with an impressive string of league victories. Highpoint of the season was the 26-19 victory over powerful league competitor Aviation. During the Aviation match an outstanding performance was turned in by Sam Simon (178), who sparked the come-from-behind victory. In tournament and league matches the finest wrestling was recorded by Chris Jonas (148), who sported a tremendous 23-

Strong wrestling by Terry Cahill (115) earned him a first place and the MVP award at the Inglewood tourney. Quickness was contributed by lightweights Mark Lininger and Jon Stern. Most improved was Jeff Koenig (130), who captured a first at the Kennedy tournament.

On the junior varsity level, there were several standouts. Freshman Steve Factor, a lightweight, provided his opponents with an excellent use of holds that kept them constantly off balance. Archie Kreitenberg, after being out at the beginning of the season with a knee injury, came back to capture a tournament title. Also, contributing to the junior varsity effort was the wrestling of David Starkman and Mike and Gary Strathearn.

While still learning the techniques of the wrestling sport, the frosh-soph team boasted the fine records of Jon Engle (7-3) and Vance Wong (6-4).

Youthful tennis team

Led by a precocious freshman and two super sophomores, Coach Hal Sieling's varsity tennis squad valiantly battled to capture the CIF crown which eluded its grasp last year in the semi-finals. Fighting it out for the team's top spot throughout the season were diminutive, precision-like frosh Howard Schoenfield and flashy soph Perry Wright, both of whom were ranked No. 1 in their respective age groups in the state of California. Constantly pressing these two for team honors was smooth soph Paul Donzis, who was also ranked high in the state. Yet the greatest facet of this powerful team was its extraordinary depth. Cliff Cut-

Coach Sieling's JV squad also proved to be of exceptional quality and was virtually unbeatable. Leading the team was Vic Brown, a part-time varsity performer. Varsity track team

With confidence for a league title, head track Coach Chuck Kloes entered this season with what potentially was the school's strongest track team ever. The team got off to a fast start by crushing pre-season foes, Murphy, 94-24, and Hawthorne, 83-35. The star-studded team was headed by standout sprinter Maurice Hill, who made a habit of breaking the tape in his races. Jeff Leeds, although only a junior, was pushing the fifty second barrier in the 440. The hurdling chores were completed by Jeff Rasak. Beverly's 440 relay team, consisting of Keith Farrell, Steve Fields, Jeff Leeds, and Maurice Hill, was one of the finest in the area. Even though the team's greatest attribute was its speed, both the distance and the field events produced valuable points. Miler Mark Luevano ran in the 4:20's, while two-miler Brian Pilcher consistently turned in fine performances. The field events produced several talents. One was pole vaulter Craig Barrett, who broke the old school record of 12'6" by breaking the 13' barrier. Last year's league champs, Gordon Kritzer in the bee shot put and Jerry Solomon in the cee long jump, proved to be valuable point-earners on varsity. Bee, Cee track excels

This year's bee and cee track squads were full of young talent. The bee team had a fine hurdling duo of Kent Fisher and Bob Levy. Mark Corazza led the bee sprinters, while Scott Gray in the 660 and Tim Wilson in the 1320, controlled the middle distances. Top bee fieldmen were pole vaulter Peter Kessler and shot putter Pete Heumann. On the cee level, Greg Gordy stood out in the hurdles. The cee relay team excelled, and Eric Chomsky was a constant victor in the 660. Cee field action was dominated by shot putter Jon Brooks, long jumper Kevin Coleman, and pole vaulter Richard Fishman.

New look for baseball

Although hampered by inexperience, this year's varsity ballplayers took the field with a winning attitude. Under the direction of new head baseball Coach Hank Friedman, the team was molded into an "aggresive and smart" ball club. Key to the Norman's performance was the outstanding play of catcher Tom Dial, center fielder Mike Johnson, and first baseman Dave Fink. All three were exceptional fielders and clutch hitters. Along with Fink, the team's strong infield consisted of Bruce Cook, Emery Hill, Bruce Bernstein, and Eric Suter. Coach Friedman was fortunate to have an excellent and durable pitching staff. The best hurlers proved to be

Jay Gilbert, Barry Ziskin, Gary Anderson, Alan Gottlieb, and Maurice Hill. Complementing center fielder Johnson in the Norman' speedy outfield were Corbin Bernsen, Marlon Thomas, David Maron, and Titus Hall. One of the season's highlights was the trip to Catalina Island to play Avalon High.

Last year's JV baseball squad wound up with a poor 5-13 record, so head Coach Richard Schreiber went into this season trying to turn things around. What he did succeed in doing was to create a cohesive, hustling team which always kept on coming and improved vastly over the season. The team had its share of fine performers such as pitchers Andy Cohen, Jack Turton, and Bill Brien. The infield produced several sure-handed players. Among these were third baseman Frank Conflenti, shortstop Steve Craig, and second baseman Carter Paysinger. The outfield corps was led by speedy Joe Cornman. This young, well-rounded team was not without some excellent hitters, either. Kevin Sims, Steve DeCuir, Steve Craig, and Andy Cohen all proved that their hitting prowess will add to next year's varsity success.

Varsity swimmers battle

Paced by CIF class sprinter Franz Wise, Beverly's varsity swim team finished with a winning season and placed high in the Sky League standings. Beverly Hills, Palos Verdes, and Redondo fought it out for league honors. Highlighting the season was the Beverly Hills Invitational, in which 16 of the top swim teams in Southern California competed. This meet brought about a long awaited head-to-head duel between two of the top freestyle sprinters in the state: Franz Wise of Beverly Hills and Brad Lidkey of El Segundo. During the season, Wise set school records in both the 50 and the 100 yard freestyle events. He also set records in the backstroke events, and at one point in the season he held an amazing 11 school records. Wise led off the team's highly regarded individual medley, which included Scott Schwimer, Stuart Seiff, and Phil Crandall. The team's lead-butterflyer proved to be Stuart Seiff, while Tim Deak was tops in the 200 and 400 freestyle races. Scott Schwimer's strong suit was the breaststroke, and Ilan Rabinowitz and Phil Crandall supported Wise in the sprints. Jim Altmann was strong in the distance races, and the team's best divers were Mark Lansing and Buddy Lindman.

Swimmers in title form

The bee and cee swim teams both improved greatly as the season progressed and wound up challenging Palos Verdes and Aviation for Sky League honors. The combined talents of Bob Scheinholtz and Ron Levitt in the freestyle events, Steve Oblath and Marc Gipsman in the backstroke, and Charles Kert in the butterfly were enough to produce numerous team victories for the bees. The cees were led by Alan Appley's backstroke proficiency and Barry Brucker's all-around talents. Billy Wainer, Ken Browar, and David Heller were all strong in the freestyle sprints, while Steve Howes excelled in the longer races.

Through the years the high school student has dramatically changed his attitude toward education. Instead of accepting what he is taught, a student is now encouraged to question the views of his instructors so that he may formulate his own opinions and ideas. This encouragement eventually leads to the development of one's individuality, the characteristics that distinguish him from his classmates, teammates, and the entire student body. Therefore, e.e. cummings' advice to the student is well taken when he states we are all born with physical individuality, but it is our personal individuality that we must all strive to find. Such individuality is what Watchtower has attempted to capture in both the education and social aspects of Beverly.

A 24-page supplement, which will be distributed in September, will cover spring activities and final sports results.

Senior portraits by Meritt's of Century City.
